

Navigating the Future: Anticipating the CUBAG AGM 2023

As the year draws to a close, the Customs Brokers Association of Ghana (CUBAG) prepares to set sail into the future with its much-anticipated Annual General Meeting (AGM) scheduled for the 16th and 17th of December 2023. Hosted with an air of anticipation, this event promises to be a pivotal moment for reflection, collaboration, and strategic planning within the freight forwarding community.

Event Details:

Date: 16th - 17th December 2023

Location: Capital View Hotel- Koforidua

AGENDA:

Receive a Report from the President (Ag.):

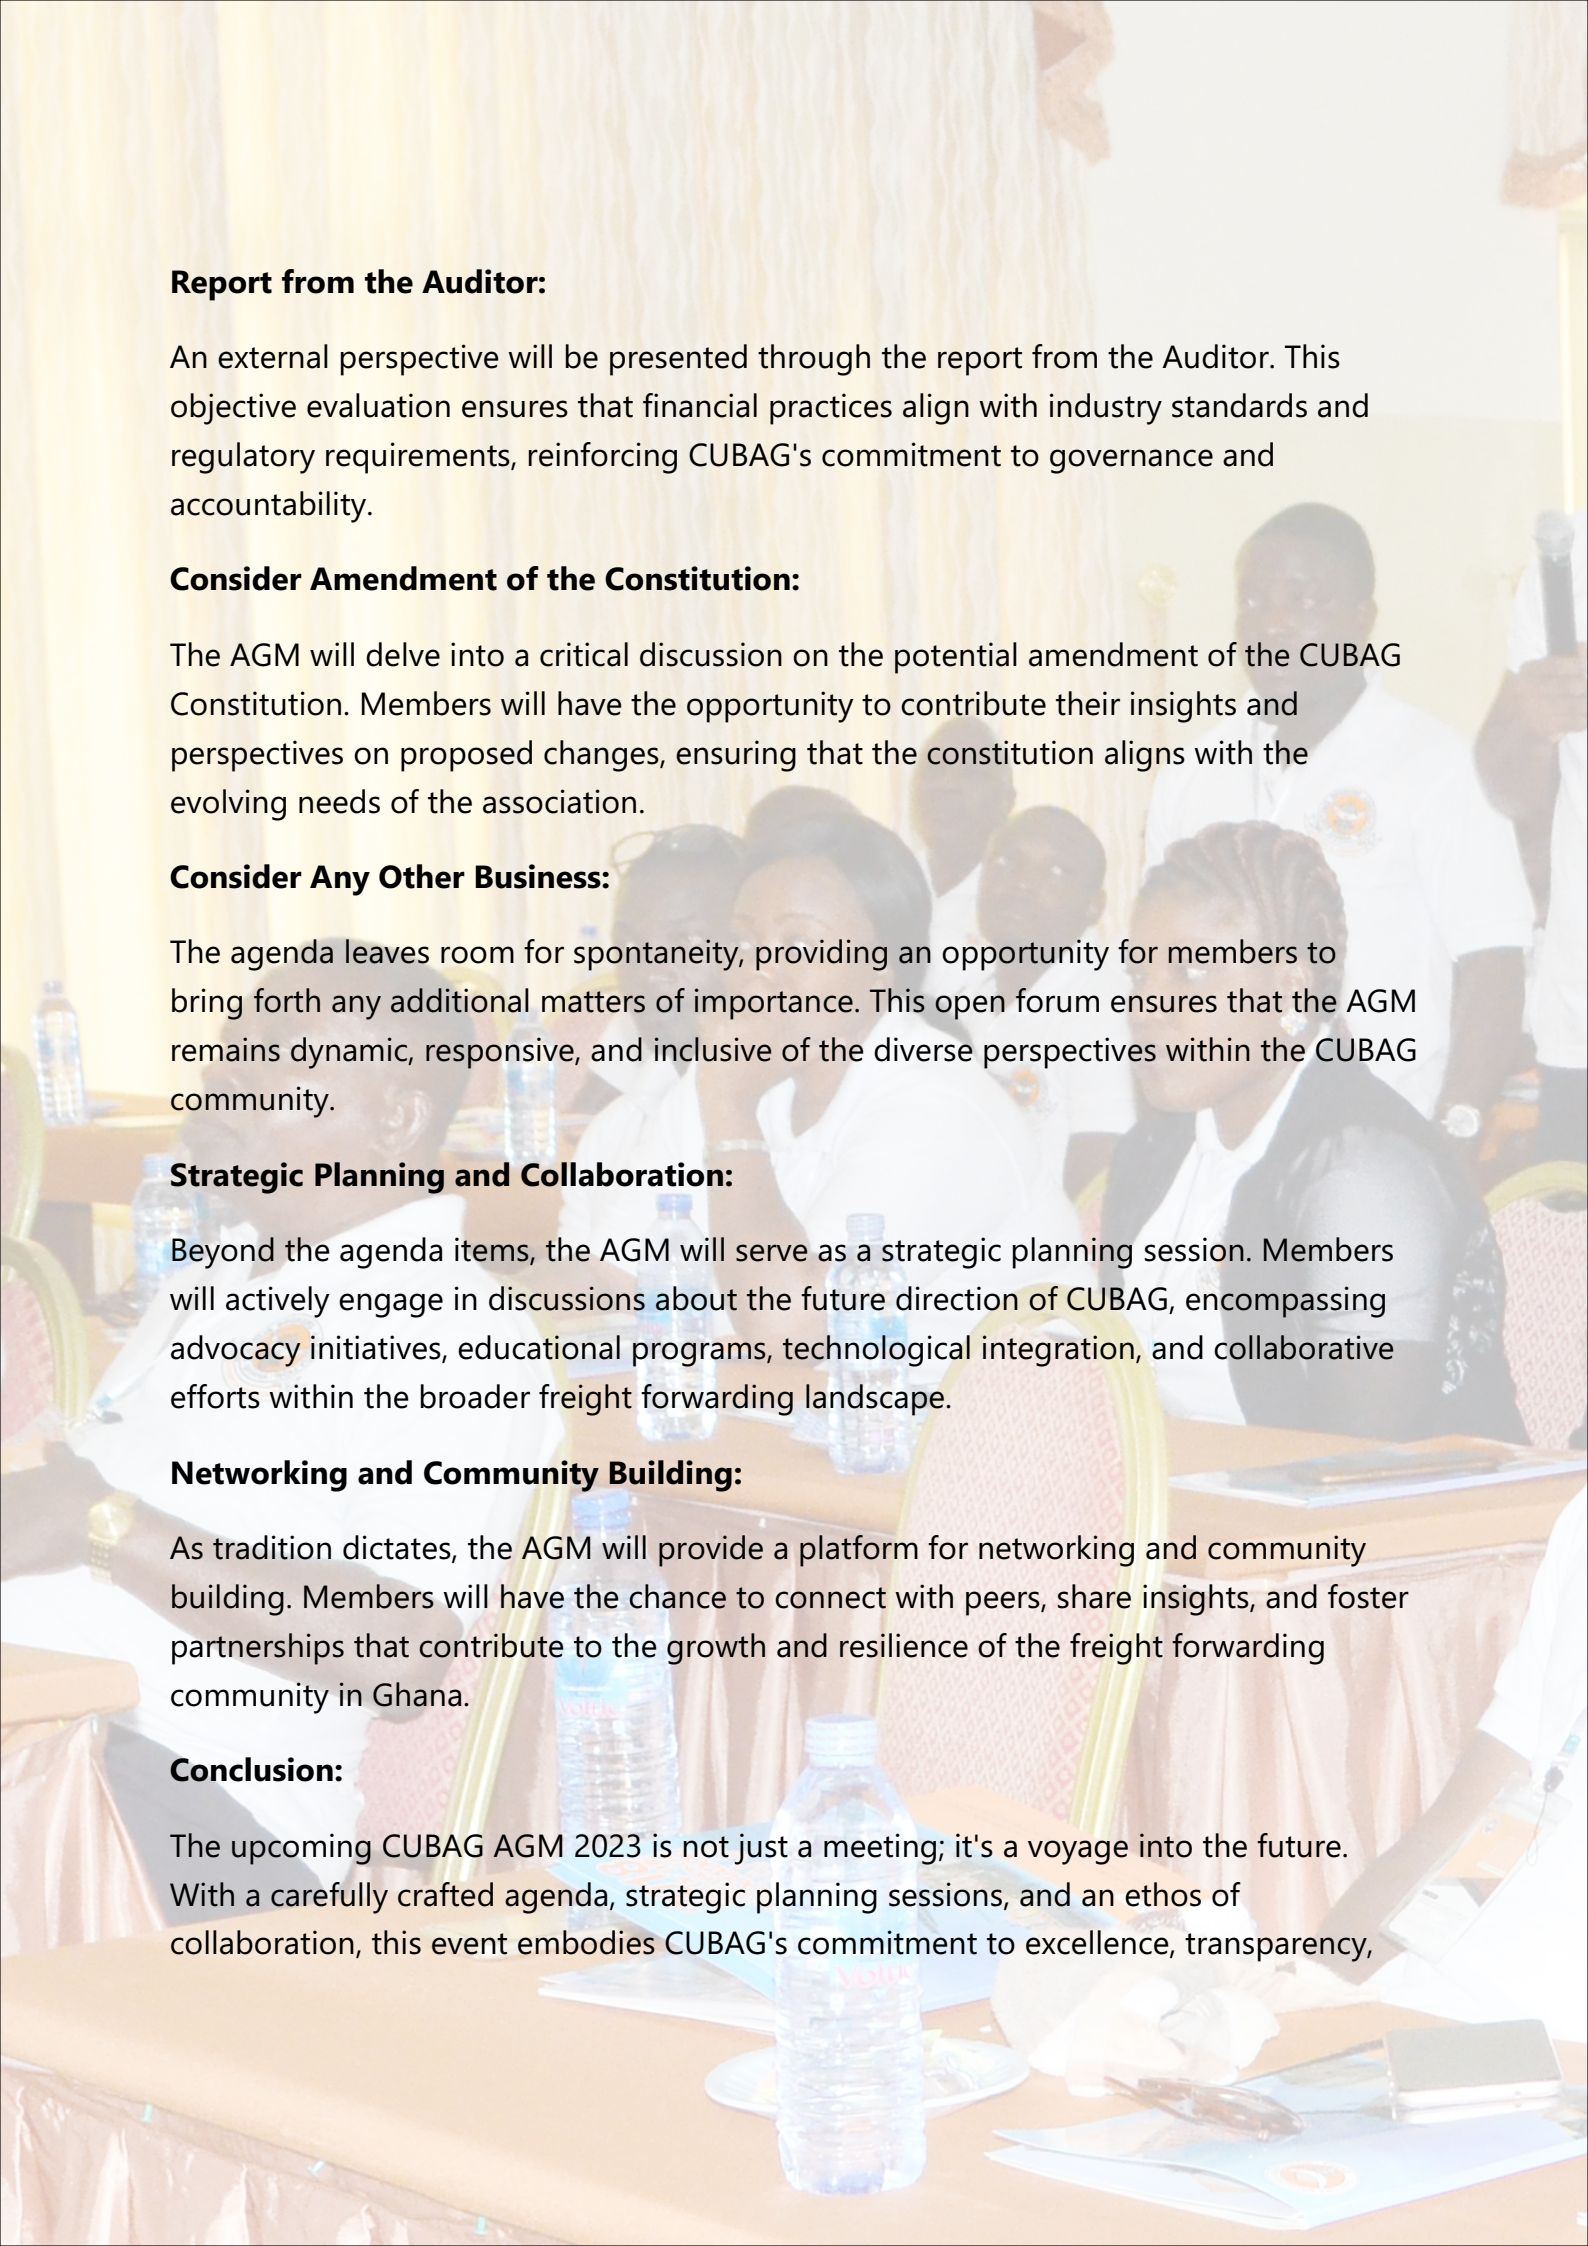

The AGM will commence with an insightful report from the Acting President. This address will encapsulate the achievements, challenges, and strategic initiatives undertaken by CUBAG over the past year. Members can anticipate a comprehensive overview that sets the stage for constructive discussions.

Consider Treasurer's Report:

Financial transparency is key, and the Treasurer's report will provide a detailed analysis of CUBAG's financial health. Members will have the opportunity to review income, expenditures, and financial plans, ensuring a clear understanding of the association's fiscal management.

Receive Situational Report from the Districts:

A vital component of the AGM, this segment will involve situational reports from various districts. These reports will shed light on the unique challenges, successes, and activities of each district, fostering a comprehensive understanding of the broader operational landscape.

Report from the Auditor:

An external perspective will be presented through the report from the Auditor. This objective evaluation ensures that financial practices align with industry standards and regulatory requirements, reinforcing CUBAG's commitment to governance and accountability.

Consider Amendment of the Constitution:

The AGM will delve into a critical discussion on the potential amendment of the CUBAG Constitution. Members will have the opportunity to contribute their insights and perspectives on proposed changes, ensuring that the constitution aligns with the evolving needs of the association.

Consider Any Other Business:

The agenda leaves room for spontaneity, providing an opportunity for members to bring forth any additional matters of importance. This open forum ensures that the AGM remains dynamic, responsive, and inclusive of the diverse perspectives within the CUBAG community.

Strategic Planning and Collaboration:

Beyond the agenda items, the AGM will serve as a strategic planning session. Members will actively engage in discussions about the future direction of CUBAG, encompassing advocacy initiatives, educational programs, technological integration, and collaborative efforts within the broader freight forwarding landscape.

Networking and Community Building:

As tradition dictates, the AGM will provide a platform for networking and community building. Members will have the chance to connect with peers, share insights, and foster partnerships that contribute to the growth and resilience of the freight forwarding community in Ghana.

Conclusion:

The upcoming CUBAG AGM 2023 is not just a meeting; it's a voyage into the future. With a carefully crafted agenda, strategic planning sessions, and an ethos of collaboration, this event embodies CUBAG's commitment to excellence, transparency, and the continuous advancement of the freight forwarding profession in Ghana. As members gather to navigate the discussions and decisions that lie ahead, the AGM stands as a beacon guiding CUBAG toward new horizons of success.
